SECRET DE COMPOSTELLE $23.99/LB.

“This Basque sheep’s milk tomme hails from high in the Pyrenees Mountains. The texture is luxuriously smooth with a rich mouthfeel. The balanced flavor profile boasts notes of toasted almonds, sweet milk and an earthy note of mushroom on the finish.”

JOSEPH PACCARD RACLETTE DE SAVOIE $17.99/LB.

Cows grazing on lush Alpine herbs and grasses in the Savoie region of the French Alps provide the raw milk for this legendary melting cheese. Each wheel is washed with a salt water brine to lend the complex, aromatic pungency that gives Raclette its pleasantly distinct flavor profile.

XAVIER DAVID COMTE $23.99/LB.

Made in the Jura Mountains of Eastern France, Xavier David Comte is carefully aged in the caves of Fort Saint Antoine to perfection. Comte is layered with complexities including nutty tones, a warm toasty essence, and subtle hints of fruit. Fantastic as a melting cheese or served on a cheese board, it's easy to see why this cheese is a favorite amongst our most experienced cheesemongers.
